Paul I. Johnston of New York City, recently sent to his parents in this place a reproduction in oil of the Johnston Coat of arms, made by Tiffany. On account of the interesting history connected with this family relic it is much prized by Mr. and Mrs. Johnston.

SALVIA

Mrs. Collie Reed who fell off a sled going home from church some time ago and broke her arm and dislocated her wrist is gradually improving.

Joseph M. Mellott is very much better and is able to move about some. We were misinformed as to his condition last week.

Veteran Henry D. Betz is in much the same condition as last week. The paralytic stroke disabled him very much.

Charlie, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Schooley, who was threatened with pneumonia, is much better.

George and Sheridan Betz, of Clearfield County, Pa., have been called to their father's bedside.

The storm of snow and rain of Sunday night last prevented services at the Asbury M. E. church. Rev. E. R. Croft was the only one who braved the elements to come.

It costs $20.70 for three minutes' talk between New York and San Francisco, and $8.75 for each additional minute. Who wants to talk?

Dare not dig in backbone of the American continent. A telegraph message of January 20 says: "Three short, sharp earthquakes have shaken the Isthmus of Panama in the last three days, the third on; occurred to-day. None of the shocks did any damage, though the inhabitants were considerably frightened." A narrow-escape for the Panama canal indeed? The next time may be something else. The earth's crust in Culebra Cut must be very thin.

END.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Berkstrasser, of Saxton, spent the week end with the former's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Berkstrasser and children, of Kearney, took dinner on Sunday with the former's grand-mother Mrs. Caroline Bridenstine.

The Ladies' Aid, of the Valley M. E. Church met at Mrs. W. L. Cunningham's on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer O. Anderson and children, of Kearney, spent Sunday with the latter's parents.

The postponed Institute of the 22nd, was held at No. 3 School house on the 29th. Good attendance and interest.

J. M. Schenck made 22 barrels of cider last Thursday from the small apples left from shipping his crop. The apples shipped were all over 2 1/2 inches in diameter. He has more cider to make. Hilary Foster still continues in poor health.

A MONEY MAKER AT PRICE ASKED.

Inquire of W. B. Flicks, 3601 5th Ave., Altoona, Pa. 2-4-3t

C. V. S. N. S. Notes.

Dr. Ezra Lehman, our Principal, left the school on Saturday morning, January 23rd, for a two weeks' visit in the Bermuda Islands.

Prof. H. W. Snyder has organized a boys' Basketball League among the students. His aim is to have all the boys take an active interest in the sports, and to develop new players. The League has been organized as the "Nut" league and is composed of six different teams—each team being coached by a member of the Varsity team. Prizes will be given to the leading team. Fifteen games are scheduled to be played during the winter term.

The Central High School team of Harrisburg won a hotly contested game of Basketball from our Varsity here last Saturday evening, by the score of 24-32. Our boys were ahead at the ending of the first half and continued to lead until just a few minutes before the close of the game when Harrisburg luckily made the winning goals. Barnhart and Grove played brilliant ball for Normal.

The regular monthly Social will be held next Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. Games will be furnished in the parlor for the students not wishing to dance. Our Literary Societies—the Normal and the Philo—are preparing for an intersociety debate to be held in the near future.

HULL & BENDER.

This will be quite an interesting debate, owing to the rivalry of the two societies. Roy J. Mathias, a Fulton county boy, is one of the debaters of Normal. Mr. Mathias has gained much prestige as a debater while at Normal.

Mr. Glenn A. Lehman sang a solo on Wednesday evening at a meeting of the Bible study class. The solo was very effective and he has been requested to sing in Chapel.

David Strait spent Saturday evening at Daniel Rinehart's. Some of the people of this community have been attending revival services at Hustontown.

Mrs. Jesse Heefner and daughter Olive spent Saturday afternoon at Sheridan Strait's. Mr. George Heefner lost a horse recently.

Miss Lydia Heefner visited at Hustontown Saturday and Sunday.

Politicians are prone to follow the crowd that can make the biggest noise. If the Jackass can furnish the noise, then, all make asses of themselves; but if the "Elefant" can trumpet louder, then, all want to be (s)trumpets.
